"THE CLANSMAN" LIBERALLY APPLAUSED.

Thomas Dixon's New Play Presented for the First Time at Atlanta, Ga.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.—Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 30.—"The Clansman," the latest drama by Thomas Dixon, was presented for the first time at the Grand Opera-house to-night.

A packed house witnessed the drama of the KKK. The audience was notable not only for size, but it was composed of the most prominent people in the city. Governor and his wife, Georgia, the starting point of all of them will depart this morning on early trains for their several destinations.

The members of the American Association of Passenger and Ticket Agents and their friends, who went to Mexico two weeks ago for the association's annual meeting, returned to St. Louis about 1 o'clock this morning. The trip was made on a special Iron Mountain train, in charge of Assistant General Passenger Agent Payson, of the Missouri Pacific and Mountain System.

Although the travelers were somewhat fatigued from the long journey and the many excursions in the Republic of Mexico, they reported that they had had a most agreeable time. They expressed themselves as particularly pleased with the welcome extended to them by the different railroads of the United States and Mexico.

The members of the large party came from all parts of the country. St. Louis being the starting point, most of them will depart this morning on early trains for their several destinations.

Mr. Dixon, the author of the play, and George E. Bremen, director of the tour, came from New York to witness the opening performance.

Another New Yorker present was A. W. Dillingham, proprietor of the famous "Tivoli" theater, who is negotiating for an indefinite run of "The Clansman" in his Metropolitan playhouse at New York.

At the opening of the third act there was a many call for the author that Mr. Dixon stepped in front of the audience. He thanked the audience for the manifested interest in the play and gave his play. The endorsement of Atlanta, he said, voted the verdict of the entire southern section of this country. Mr. Dixon said he hoped the play would be well received by the public in the South. He wrote it, he said, for the entire country, irrespective of sections.
